“It’s a pleasure to support such an important cause — no one should go hungry.”

— Christopher Connolly, who has donated a total of $57,750 over the last 11 years, shown here with his wife, Marjorie Liner

Project Bread’s Leadership Circle is comprised of a special group of individual donors who make an extra commitment to those facing hunger in Massachusetts. Their generosity has helped make it possible to provide lifesaving support to emergency food programs throughout the state. They also made it possible for Project Bread to research and develop innovative solutions to end hunger. This list acknowledges gifts made between June 1, 2010, and May 31, 2011.

Project Bread strives to be as accurate as possible in listing our supporters. We appreciate your help in correcting any errors or omissions. Where compound last names appear, we list by the first of the two names in the compound.

Project Bread's Bread & Lights appeal was founded in 1991 as a Chanukah celebration for the Jewish community. The Bread & Lights appeal represents the deepest commitment to tzedaka, the Jewish giving tradition of helping those in need. Co-chairs of this appeal are Steven Grossman and Mitchel Appelbaum, both members of the Project Bread Board of Directors, along with their wives Barbara Grossman and Meryl Appelbaum.

“Today more than ever, hunger affects all parts of our society — individuals, businesses, and government. Left unchecked, hunger threatens our health, our productivity, and our future. On a daily basis, Project Bread, through its dedicated staff, supporters, and partners, spearheads the fight to end hunger in Massachusetts by helping people to better understand hunger and its causes, and by working to find not just temporary fixes, but meaningful and lasting solutions.”

BreadWinners

Project Bread's Leadership Circle is comprised of a special group of individual donors who make an extra commitment to those facing hunger in Massachusetts. Their generosity has helped make it possible to provide lifesaving support to emergency food programs throughout the state. They also made it possible for Project Bread to research and develop innovative solutions to end hunger. This list acknowledges gifts made between June 1, 2010, and May 31, 2011.
