7NEWS anchor, Anne Allred, speaking at the 2011 Walk for Hunger Kickoff Breakfast

“For the past two and a half years, my colleagues at 7NEWS and I have been reporting on the economy — and we all know that, while there are signs of improvement, many families are still struggling. The Walk for Hunger teaches us that each person walking and raising funds is a neighbor there to help another neighbor. I am especially delighted that 7NEWS has also been a good neighbor to Project Bread and to the thousands of people in Massachusetts in need of food.”
